

Cross Island Consulting and Training Services LLC

Consulting Services include:

- Customized public safety strategies for agencies, to include
 - realignment of organizational structure,
 - strategic planning, mission/vision/values/guiding principles statements, and accreditation assistance
 - development of initial academy curricula for limited commission/authority/jurisdiction personnel;
 - ongoing and in-service training design, development and implementation;
 - curriculum design, development and implementation for public safety responders, security staff, etc.
- Creation or revision of All-Hazards Emergency Response Plans, guidelines, customized emergency management forms, and Incident Command structures that are compliant with Federal law, Presidential Orders, and yet MAKE SENSE. These include:
 - All-Hazards Emergency Response Plans and Guidelines;
 - Risk, threat and vulnerability assessments and recommendations based on realistic probabilities;
 - Consultation on Emergency Operations Center management, including Command and General Staff assignments, branches, etc.
 - Emergency flip-charts;
 - Development and implementation of emergency response scenarios, table-top exercises, and full-scale on-ground exercises tailored to your agency/workplace, including Active Threat/Shooter;
 - Pandemic Plans;
 - Continuity of Business/Operations Plans
 - Information Technology Disaster-related plans
 - Reunification Plans
 - Customized emergency management forms that FIT YOUR NEEDS.
 - General Orders/protocol development for limited authority security teams and public safety practitioners.
- Operation up-sizing or realignment;
- Policy development, review, and implementation strategies;
- Development or modification of existing statutes, administrative law, and ordinances;
- Other services upon request